How to check your electronic proof

- Check the proof carefully for errors or omissions (especially in figures, tables and equations) and reply to the copy-editor's queries.
- Reply to comments and make corrections on the pdf on screen using Adobe's "Comment & Markup" tools.
- Use the Word file to view and check the copy-editor changes. The file also includes the comments from the pdf.
- Complete this Proof Response Form.
- Save both pdfs and return them by email to Inter-Research at proofs@int-res.com. If any further information or files need to be sent, add them to the email.
- Additional help on checking proofs:

Software requirements

- Any version of Adobe Acrobat Reader.
- Any version of MS Word or another word-processing program.

Please note

- To reduce file size for email transmission, the resolution of the figures has been reduced. The proof pdf does not represent the quality of the final version.
- Please restrict corrections to printing errors and requested alterations. Expenses due to excessive stylistic and other changes may be charged to the author(s).
